Prior Period Adjustments:

In 2009, The City of Calgary ("The City") adopted the new accounting standards recommended by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Public Sector Accounting Standards

2016 CITY OF CALGARY ANNUAL REPORT

(PSAS) handbook. These new standards include Tangible Capital Assets (TCA) (PS3150, Tangible Capital Assets).

In 2016, as a result of continued usage and refinement of capital asset accounting and management systems, certain prior year asset balances were identified that required correction and the financial statements have been retrospectively adjusted. These tangible capital asset balances primarily consisted of land improvements, engineered structures, buildings, and machinery and equipment. As a result, approximately $52.0 million in net adjustments was restated and $1.9 million in land inventory was reclassified to tangible capital assets for 2015. The change represents less than 0.5% of tangible capital assets.

During 2016, ENMAX identified an adjustment in their deferred income tax calculation that required correction. The correction and reclassification have been reflected in these financial statements as a prior period adjustment to 2015 figures, resulting in a decrease of $39 million to the income tax recovery.

In 2016, The City identified an adjustment to their capital deposits and reserves that required reclassification. This reclassification has been reflected in these financial statements as a prior period adjustment to 2015 figures, resulting in a decrease of $31 million to the capital deposits.

The Water Resources and Water Services business unit in 2016 identified an adjustment in their accounts receivable that required correction. This correction has been reflected in the financial statements as a prior period adjustment to 2015 figures. As a result, the accounts receivable and sale of goods and services both increase by $12 million.

These restated amounts had no effect on The City's cash balances, property tax revenues or any other balances influencing The City's grants received, property tax assessments or any other related balances.

Summary of Financial Results:

The Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards (PSAS) reporting model prescribes five indicators of performance: net financial assets (debt), accumulated surplus (deficit), annual surplus (deficit); cash flow in the year, and the change in net financial assets (debt) in the year. Together, these indicators help the reader understand how well The City has managed its finances in the year and where it stands in terms of resources held and debts owed at the end of the year.

The 2016 consolidated financial statements of The City of Calgary continue to reflect a strong and healthy financial picture of a municipality investing in infrastructure.

Each of the five indicators of financial health is described in detail, as follows:

On the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position:

2016 CITY OF CALGARY ANNUAL REPORT

Net Financial Assets: calculated as total financial assets less financial liabilities. The focus on financial assets as separate from non-financial assets is critical, as financial assets can be used to discharge liabilities or provide services, while non-financial assets are normally only used to provide services in the future. The City has a net financial assets position of $1,359 million. This is an increase from the net financial asset position of $115 million at the end of 2015. This means The City has more financial assets than financial liabilities (including debt). This is primarily due to the increase in cash and cash equivalents, receivables, investment in ENMAX, and land inventory as well as decreases in long term debt. This is partially offset by an increase in accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Accumulated Surplus: This indicator represents The City's total net economic resources, both financial and non-financial and it is the sum of net financial performance since the beginning of time. The City has an accumulated surplus of $17,468 million as at December 31, 2016, comprised of $1,359 million in net financial assets and $16,109 million in non-financial assets.

This surplus means that there are net resources (both financial and physical) that can be used to provide future services. This total accumulated surplus also indicates that, over time, The City has raised enough funds to cover annual operations and contributions to capital programs and that borrowing has been for capital purposes only. A further breakdown of the elements of the accumulated surplus is provided in Note 17 of the consolidated financial statements.

On the Consolidated Statement of Operations and Accumulated Surplus:

Annual Surplus: The City has an annual surplus position of $1,171 million, meaning enough funds were raised in the year to afford the total cost of providing services and a contribution to investment in new capital assets in the year.

On the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows:

Increase in cash and cash equivalents in the year: The increase in cash and cash equivalents in the year represents that, from a cash perspective, The City essentially raised enough cash to afford the required cash outflows in the year. Cash was raised through $1,541 million in operating activities and $69 million in investing activities. Cash was spent through a combination of $1,354 million in capital activities and $132 million in financing activities.

On the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Net Financial Assets:

Change in Net Financial Assets in the year: From December 31 2015 to December 31 2016, The City increased its net financial asset position by $115 million, from $1,244 million in 2015 to $1,359 million in 2016. The change in the year is a measure of whether the revenues raised were sufficient to cover the spending in the year, including any capital spending to acquire new assets. The increase in the year was primarily a result of the excess of 2016 revenues over expenses and amortization of existing tangible capital assets, less the acquisition and contributions of new capital assets in the year.

Stakeholder Engagement, Research and Communication

Upon Council's approval of the Annual Report, a Report to Citizens will be placed in the Calgary Herald summarizing the Statement of Financial Position, Statement of Financial Activities, and other financial highlights as well as advising the public where complete copies of the Annual

Strategic Alignment

The 2016 External Auditor's Year End Audit Report is needed for Audit Committee to fulfill its audit governance responsibilities, with respect to confirming the integrity of The City's Annual Financial Statements and recommending its approval to Council. The External Auditor's Year End Audit Report will be brought forward to Council as report AC2017-0348. Financial Reporting compliance with provincial legislation is essential to ensure public confidence and fulfill the public's need for transparency and accountability.
