

Municipal Development Plan Developed Areas

The Municipal Development Plan (MDP) establishes policies for growth and intensification across the city. This map shows the boundaries of the Developed Areas within the total area of Calgary. (The Centre City is included in the Developed Areas on this map.) It also illustrates the areas identified as higher density typology areas. MDP policies direct intensification towards these higher density areas.

