

Calgary Aboriginal Urban Affairs Committee (CAUAC) Strategic Plan 2014 – 2023

CAUAC VALUES

Integrity, humility, respect, honour oral stories and validation from Elders, strength, spirituality, connection, awareness, understanding, inclusion, equality, reciprocity, relationships, consensus-building, tradition, culture, roots.

CAUAC VISION

“In the spirit of where the waters meet, at the Elbow and Bow rivers, Calgary is a place that honors the unique history, culture and traditions of Aboriginal people. It is a place for engagement and renewal of future generations of Aboriginal people, and it is a place where Aboriginal people are full and equal participants in Calgary’s quality of life.”

CAUAC MISSION

CAUAC, on behalf of City Council, is to investigate areas of concern to people of Aboriginal ancestry and to make recommendations on policies and resolutions that would give urban Aboriginal people a more meaningful role within the Calgary community. The Committee strives to improve the opportunities and the quality of life of Aboriginal people living in Calgary. Its membership includes both Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people.

FOUNDATION PLAN: imagineCalgary

By 2020, all public institutions and systems create and implement an urban Aboriginal policy that recognizes the detrimental colonial history experienced by First Nations, Métis and Inuit people; a plan reduces barriers to public participation and governance; and supports economic, social and political advancement. (imagineCalgary, 2006, Governance System Target 3)

- Strategy 1: Develop a culturally inclusive collective vision and plan that honours and embraces the diverse First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities of Calgary.
- Strategy 2: Encourage groups to understand the historical, economic, social and political challenges of Calgary’s First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities.
- Strategy 3: Recommend that institutions and systems use Aboriginal awareness training to better understand and respond to social, cultural and economic service requests, and finance such training.
- Strategy 4: Recommend that institutions and systems work collaboratively with all three levels of government to ensure the most effective and efficient funding of services for and delivery of services to Calgary’s First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities.
