

The word "Calgary" in white text on a red rectangular background.A wide-angle photograph of the Peace Bridge in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. The bridge's distinctive red, curved steel arches create a strong sense of perspective, leading the eye towards the city skyline in the distance. The bridge spans the Bow River, with lush green trees and a clear blue sky with scattered white clouds in the background. A few people can be seen walking on the bridge's deck.

Recognition by Council

2021 Advisory Committee on Accessibility Awards

Advocacy Award

Calgary Adapted Hub

The Universal Design/Access Recognition Award

ARK (Accessibility Renovations for Kids)

Transportation Opportunities Award

Safe and Accessible Pathways – Alberta Ability Network and Bike Calgary

The word "Calgary" in white text on a red rectangular background.A wide-angle photograph of a red, arched pedestrian bridge over a river. The bridge's structure is made of thick, curved red metal beams. In the background, a city skyline with various high-rise buildings is visible under a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The river is calm, and there are some small boats or kayakers in the distance. The right bank of the river is lined with green trees and a rocky shoreline.

Recognition by Council

2021 Advisory Committee on Accessibility Awards