

The word "Calgary" in white text on a red background.A wide-angle photograph of the Peace Bridge in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. The bridge's distinctive red, curved steel arches create a strong sense of perspective, leading the eye towards the city skyline in the distance. The bridge spans the Bow River, with lush green trees and a rocky shoreline visible on the right. The sky is filled with dramatic, white and grey clouds, suggesting a bright but slightly overcast day. A few people can be seen walking on the bridge's deck.
