With 29% of the population in Mahogany being 0-14 years old (~ 2,050, from a City of Calgary Census), our community has 2 elementary schools both at capacity, one designated Middle school in Sharewood and one designated Highschool in Seton. Our kids have to go to further communities and there are no talks about opening more schools or sharing designation with neighbouring communities like Auburn Bay, Seton, Cranston, New Brighton, etc for most grades. In short, we NEED SCHOOLS within the Mahogany community and hence land availability, we do not need more residential spaces. Thank you!

NO to land redensingation. We NEED schools in Mahogany

With 29% of the population in Mahogany being 0-14 years old (~ 2,050, from a City of Calgary Census), our community has 2 elementary schools in the area Devine Mercy, which is no longer taking students (so anyone new goes to Mongsinor in Douglasdale) and the newest school which only has capacity for 600 students, which has almost reached capacity. Using the CBE "find a school tool", it seems there's one designated Middle school in Sharewood and one designated Highschool in Seton.

There is no talk about opening more schools or sharing designation with neighbouring communities like Auburn Bay, Seton, Cranston, New Brighton, etc for most grades. In short our kids need to go to other further communities and we NEED designated land for future SCHOOLS within the Mahogany community.

Mahogany Schools Facts

Mahogany School

165 Mahogany Blvd. SE, T3M 1N4

Anticipated Opening Date: Sept. 2022

Grades | K-4

Capacity | 600

What happens if Mahogany School becomes too full in the future?

In the future, Mahogany School is expected not to have enough space for all students in the community. When that happens, some Mahogany students will attend the newest elementary school in Auburn Bay and acceptance into the school will be based on the CBE's lottery process.

Mahogany School has 530 students enrolled, with capacity to grow to around 600. 5 days ago

I am against this change and would like you to reconsider it. We don't need more houses in Mahogany, we do need schools instead and the idea of re-designate a school zone to build more houses is not viable. We only have 2 schools for elementary and there are not middle schools built yet. How is that Auburn Bay gets 5 schools and we just got 2 and it is still difficult for us to get in them? Please reconsider this change and keep the school zone for a future school.
