Administrative Penalties System Deferral

RECOMMENDATION:

That Council refer reporting on the Administrative Penalties System from 2022 Q4 to the 2023 January 24 Regular Meeting of Council.

At its 2022 June 07 Combined Meeting, Council deferred development of an Administrative Penalties Bylaw for presentation at Public Hearing to return by Q4 2022.

The deferral was sought to complete the final validation of a financial analysis, to ensure senior management was appropriately engaged regarding the change to the Provincial Government's direction on justice reform and to identify the best strategic options for The City of Calgary.

Further discussions with officials from the Government of Alberta have allowed Administration to better understand Provincial priorities for justice reform, and to refine our understanding of available options for modernizing the administration and adjudication of bylaw offences.

The Directors of Mobility, Transit and Emergency Management and Community Safety have been engaged about future options. Law and Intergovernmental and Corporate Strategy are working collaboratively with the City Clerk's Office to brief the Executive Leadership Team and develop a report and presentation for Council, which requires additional time to complete.

The Administration will return to Council at the 2023 January 24 Regular Meeting of Council.
