COUNCIL POLICY

Policy Title: Approval of City of Calgary Senior Management Compensation and Pension Policy

Policy Number: CC031

Report Number: NM 2003 September 29, PAC2007-20

Approved by: City Council

Effective Date: 2003 September 29

Business Unit: Office of the Mayor

BACKGROUND

At the 2003 September 29 special meeting of Council regarding personnel matters, Council adopted the following policy through a Notice of Motion regarding the approval of the compensation and pension policy for senior management at The City of Calgary.

PURPOSE

To clarify responsibilities and establish that the approval of the compensation and pension policy for senior management at The City of Calgary, and any amendments to the policy is the exclusive domain of City Council.

WHEREAS The City of Calgary maintains a number of registered and unregistered pension funds and reserves;

AND WHEREAS the City Auditor has found serious governance, control and transparency deficits with respect to implementation of several supplementary pensions;

AND WHEREAS the Administrative report to the Accountability, Priorities and Agenda Committee on pensions reported significant un-funded liabilities in supplementary pension plans, but failed to report the existence of offsetting reserves for these plans;

POLICY

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Calgary City Council:

1. Re-affirms that senior management compensation and pension policy is the exclusive domain of City Council, and that this is not a function which Council delegates to the Chief Executive Officer;
