

Aerial Images

A series of aerial images was created for a representative sampling of facilities likely to be covered under the new Safe and Inclusive Access Bylaw. These aerial images show where the access zones will extend based on several different measures between 50 and 150 metres.

