

New Event Centre

The Event Centre:

- Is a catalyst for attracting private sector investment into the Culture and Entertainment District and the development of under-utilized lands.
- Is a key pillar for putting Calgary back on a favourable trajectory for future growth and prosperity.
- Will provide significant direct and indirect benefits to Calgarians.
- Is critical to realize east Victoria Park as a Culture and Entertainment District that will add to the cultural vitality of Calgary.
- Contributes to outcomes identified in Council's Downtown Strategy, the Economic Strategy for Calgary and Tourism Calgary's Destination Strategy.

About the new Event Centre

CMLC will lead public engagement on:

- Facility design and connectivity
- Programming opportunities
- Urban design and streetscaping

100%
Ownership by The City

Who owns the Event Centre?
The Event Centre and land will be 100 per cent owned by The City.

Projected returns to Calgarians

$400.3
Million Est.

Over 35 years; direct revenue through a facility fee, naming rights, street-facing retail property taxes, amateur sports payments and community engagement programming; indirect returns through accelerated Rivers District property tax generation (the Community Revitalization Levy).

* Numbers have been rounded.

$19.4
Million Est.
Over 35 years

Street-facing retail property taxes

$138.7
Million Est.
Over 35 years

Incremental Rivers District property tax

Community engagement programming

$9.5
Million Est.
Over 35 years

Access to various events held each year at the Event Centre

The City's share of naming rights

$2.5
Million
Over 10 years

The City's Facility Fee

$155.1

Million Est. Over 35 years

The City will collect a net facility fee on all CSEC & third party events in the Event Centre.

Support to local community sports organizations

$75

Million Est.
Over 35 years

The Investment

Each partner is investing

$275
Million

Operating Agreement
35 year term of the agreement

Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation (CSEC) will be solely responsible for all operating, maintenance and repair costs, other than major structural repairs. CSEC will not relocate the Calgary Flames during the 35 year term.

Other costs to The City

$15.4
Million

Land and transactional costs:
$3 Million
Saddledome demolition:
$12.4 Million
CSEC contribution: $1.4 million

How it's funded

0%
Tax increase

The investment of $275 Million includes capital budget funding from the Major Projects Capital Reserve over the three-year design and construction period.

It will not increase municipal property tax and will not impact the 2019 business tax relief program.

Outdoor year-round permanent gathering place

Concerts, assemblies, festivals, sports, affordable community programs and activities

Up to 19,000
Seat Main Facility

+ May include a second smaller arena

2021

Construction begins

Approximately three years to complete

What it means for our city

CITY OF CALGARY RECEIVED IN COUNCIL BOARDROOM

JUL 22 2019

ITEM: C2019-0964 Distribution CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

- ✓ Supports the long-term vision set out in the Council-approved Rivers District Master Plan.
- ✓ Solidifies Calgary's place as a major destination for visitors from around the world while boosting tax revenue for reinvestment in the revitalization of the Culture and Entertainment District.

Community and social benefits include increased:

- ✓ civic pride
- ✓ community cohesion and excitement
- ✓ sense of belonging and togetherness
- ✓ visibility as a world-class city