

2022 Civic Partner Annual Report

vibrant COMMUNITIES
CALGARY

Right now, in Calgary

28%

Calgarians could not weather a financial shock for 3 months

67%

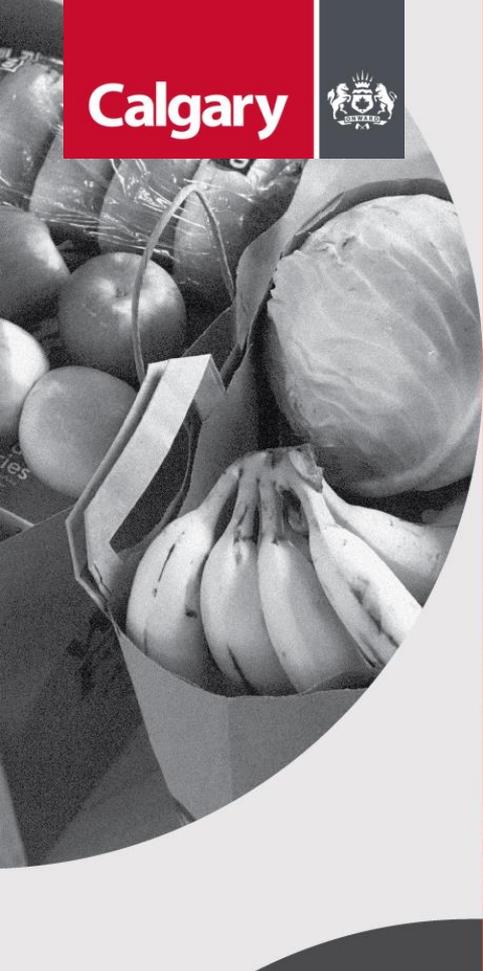

Calgarians have access to affordable childcare services

41 890

Calgarians considered “working poor”

21%

of Calgarians can’t afford healthy food

Right now, in Calgary

83%

Calgary students complete high school

86%

Calgarians believe they have access to transportation that meets their daily needs

10%

Income grew most in the bottom 10%

85%

of Calgarians
perceive their general health as excellent or very good.

2022 Highlights and Results

enough for  all

Policy

Alberta's affordable housing strategy | Advocating for changes to Income Support | Energy poverty | Advocacy

Collaboration

Champion network | 369 | IDEP | Living Wage network | Advancing anti-racism

Research

Poverty Snapshot | Community Wellbeing Report | Measuring What Matters | Examining Calgary's Emergency Food Assistance System | Housing

Communication

Let's Talk Poverty Podcast | Media

2022 Highlights and Results

All Indigenous people are equal participants in Calgary's future.

Reconciliation, transformative change & honouring the learnings we've been given

2022 Performance Measures

Strong, supportive inclusive community

Sufficient assets and income to thrive

All Indigenous People are Equal Participants in Calgary's Future

Amplifying the voices of lived experience

Questions?

vibrant
COMMUNITIES
CALGARY

