RE: Community Naming
Councillor Pincott

WHEREAS, communities in Calgary are typically named by the community developer at the initial stages of development;

AND WHEREAS, proposed names are submitted to the City of Calgary Municipal Names Committee and forwarded on to City Council for adoption;

AND WHEREAS, Calgary has for the past several decades been developing new "Greenfield" communities;

AND WHEREAS, in 1997 Canada Lands acquired the old CFB Calgary lands and began redeveloping the site;

AND WHEREAS, Garrison Woods was completed in 2004, Garrison Green was completed in 2010 and Currie Barracks is currently under development;

AND WHEREAS, these community names are not recognized within the City of Calgary nomenclature;

AND WHEREAS, Garrison Woods, Garrison Green and Currie Barracks are three distinct and identifiable communities;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Administration, in consultation with Canada Lands Company, initiate the naming of Garrison Woods, Garrison Green and Currie Barracks through the Priorities and Finance Committee to return to City Council for adoption by resolution no later than December 2015.
