

Calgary city council outlines priorities in proposed 4-year budget

Nicole Di Donato
CTV News Calgary Multimedia
Journalist

✕ Follow Contact

Melissa Gilligan
CTVNewsCalgary.ca Digital Journalist

Contact

Updated Nov. 8, 2022 8:16 p.m. MST

Published Nov. 8, 2022 10:47 a.m. MST

The City of Calgary has released its proposed budget for the next four years, detailing spending priorities amid increasing inflation.

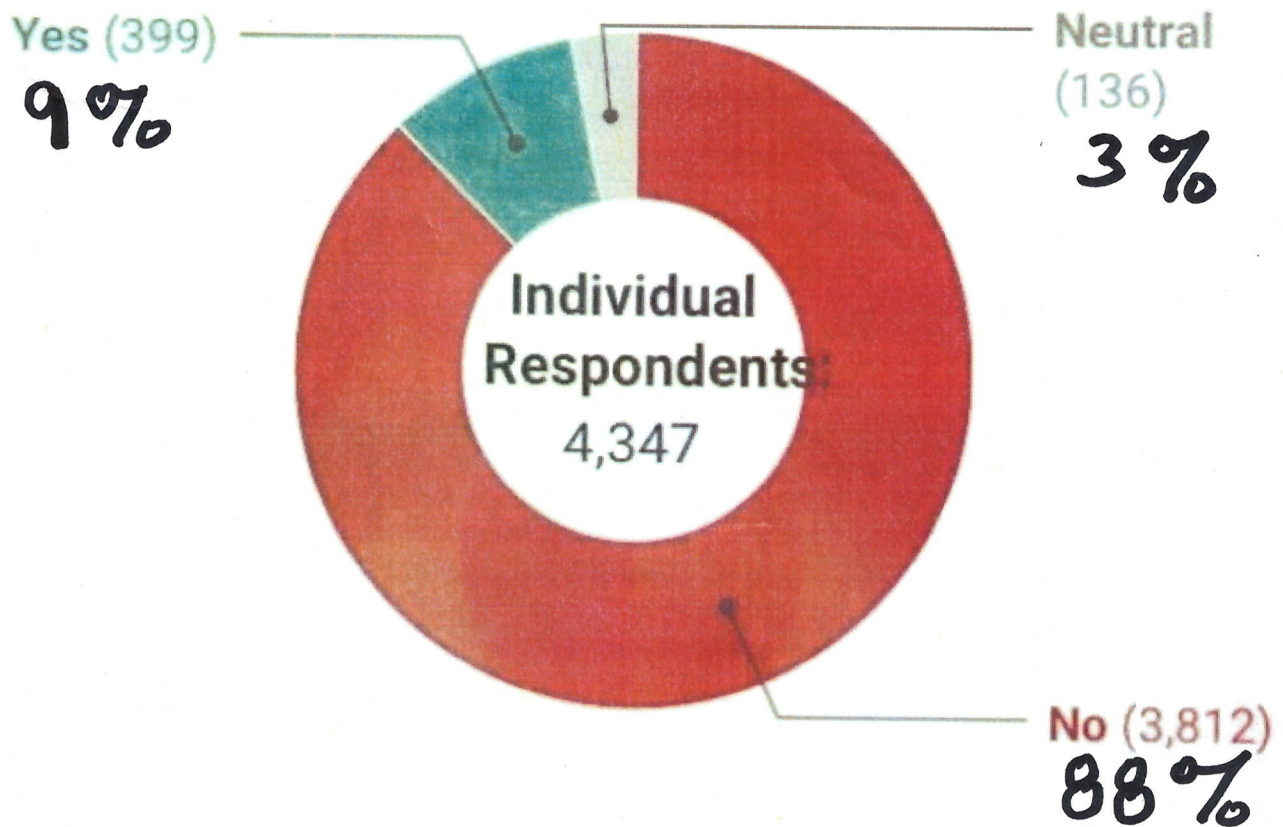

Calgary's proposed total annual operating budget will reach $4.9 billion by 2026 and plans are in place to invest a total of $10.2 billion in capital infrastructure that starts or continues in this cycle.

"The investments we're proposing will continue our progress to make Calgary a great place to make a living and a great place to make a life for all Calgarians," said city manager David Duckworth in a release.

"We will continue to deliver the services Calgarians rely on over the next

Individual responses received by City of Calgary for blanket rezoning public hearing

Total number of unique individuals that provided submissions to the City of Calgary ahead of the April 22, 2024 public hearing. Duplicate submissions made by a single person are counted as one submission.

Source: City of Calgary • Get the data • Created with Datawrapper

Nearby cities

Overall budget – divide by pop*

*unverified source

Chestermere $1,600 / person

Calgary $2,300 / person

Edmonton $1800 / person

Cochrane $2600 / person

(?? $30 mil more than same-sized city Chestermere)

Calgary budget set to leap from $2.8 billion to
$4.9 billion in 2026.

(An additional $1,500 per person?)

What for???