Key Considerations for the Board of Directors

Mandate and Objectives

- The Attainable Homes Calgary Corporation mandate is to "create non-market affordable housing on development-ready land on behalf of the City of Calgary and its citizens."
- AHC follows a simple formula but operates within a complex ecosystem to create housing:

LAND + MONEY + CERTAINTY = HOUSING

- AHC converts development ready land to housing as soon as possible, and uses its collective experience and skills to obtain financing, de-risked development approvals and realize production certainty to produce as many units as possible in Calgary's undersupplied housing market environment.
- The AHC Board of Directors is a strategic governance board, and the AHC Board seeks new Board members with the passion, skills and experience to advance conversion of land to housing for Calgarians.

Succession Planning Process

Summary of Succession Planning Process

- Board related succession planning and performance is required for review by the Board through the AHC Annual Work Plan process. The Work Plan establishes "Board/Committee Performance" review as an item to be reviewed by the AHC Corporate Performance & Governance ("CP&G") Committee at the Q4 meeting of that committee, then subsequently at the Q4 Board meeting."
- "Board/CEO Succession & Board term review" is also entrenched in the annual work plan for CP&G committee review in Q1.
- The CP&G committee manages Board recruitment and recommends candidates to the Board. The Board then discusses, then votes, to recommend candidates to the Shareholder at the AGM.
- Board directors Ken Toews and Gerry Wagner will be at the end of their 6-year terms at the AGM in 2024. Skills to be bolstered/replaced on the Board in the near future are real estate development and law, which has been accomplished through the candidates presented herein.
- The CP&G committee has a plan in place for Board chair and committee chair succession through to 2026.
