

Community Association Response

Based on the materials provided, MidSun Community Association considers the proposed land-use amendment to be generally positive for the area. This reflects our assessment of the information received and does not constitute a formal position of support.

Kind regards,

Erwin Gotthold