CAUAC MISSION

CAUAC, on behalf of City Council, is to investigate areas of concern to people of Aboriginal ancestry and to make recommendations on policies and resolutions that would give urban Aboriginal people a more meaningful role within the Calgary community. The

FOUNDATION PLAN:

imagineCalgary

By 2020, all public institutions and systems create and implement an urban Aboriginal policy that recognizes the detrimental colonial history experienced by First Nations, Métis and Inuit people; a plan reduces barriers to public participation and governance; and supports economic, social and political advancement. (imagineCalgary, 2006, Governance System Target 3)

Strategy 1: Develop a culturally inclusive collective vision and plan that honours and embraces the diverse First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities of Calgary.

Strategy 2: Encourage groups to understand the historical, economic, social and political challenges of Calgary’s First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities.

Strategy 3: Recommend that institutions and systems use Aboriginal awareness training to better understand and respond to social, cultural and economic service requests, and finance such training.

Strategy 4: Recommend that institutions and systems work collaboratively with all
